

Test I

1. Capt. Aman, 26, visited the home of his late classmate Capt. Ayaz after his martyrdom to know about his family and four year old son. As he entered, he greeted the lady, went in front of the picture of his late brave friend and gave his gratitude. He then saw, his four yr old son playing with some tanks and small plastic ammunition, that made him clear that the child is also keen to join the armed forces. He sat with the child, played with him and also narrated him some stories of his father from one battlefield. He also spent time with the lady and assured her that he is always there for them as a brother and can be called anytime. He also asked her to involve the child into active sport.

2. Rohan, 25, ECE engineer once got into a project for freelancing and met a few friends where they decided to re-use and make an old ring phone operatable again. He gathered from his friends at his place, bought an old ring phone from secondhand market, bought the necessary wires, buttons, ring and frequency meter from the market. They made a plan to set every day for at least 2 hrs after their jobs or college and devote it. On the process, he learnt how these phones worked and took deep dive into the manufacturing. Eventually, after regular efforts and devotion, he finally fixed the old phone and made first successful call to their professor and broke the news.

3. Akash, 25, systems engineer working in NCL, Noida. came back home after his night shift and without changing his clothes he started pensively thinking about how can he automate the manual process and productivity was losing up. Therefore, he sat with his laptop, searched about corporate tools and found 'windurf', a tool where he can give an requirement and since it was Claude enable, it would give a step by step plan. Akash sat every day after his office and gradually started working on scope wise requirement, writing code and testing it. He also involved junior interns to make them learn the process. After a few months they were successfully able to automate the process.

4. Anil, 25, was on his way to his office to Pune for an urgent work and wanted to catch the metro. While crossing the street, he found that a car had hit a young boy on cycle and his mother had gone terrified. He immediately rushed to the boy and lifted him up, and checked for any injury. On talking to the car driver it was evident that he was not at mistake since the child came suddenly & he dispersed the crowd and took the boy along with his mother to the nearby nursing home to give him required treatment. He also kept on pacifying the child's mother and also told her to take boy to the park for cycling. After bidding farewell to them, he caught the next metro and left for meeting.

5. Raj, 25, a working professional in AAA, Delhi, decided to plan an excursion along with his two friends to Awarant. He decided on the itinerary after discussing with his friends, made necessary arrangements and left for the place. After journey on foot for some time, they were returning and Raj felt some unusual seismic sound that led to the wooden vertical pathway shake and he also heard the sound of cracks. He told his friends to keep calm and instructed them to turn as the wooden steps had started falling. He held on to the rail and ran fast over the path. Once they crossed, he immediately informed the forest authority about the breach of wooden path. He checked for injury to his friends and returned home.

6. On a cold winter morning of Delhi, Prem, 25 years old, athlete was travelling in the Delhi metro for his 800m event for an national game. He put on earphones in his ears and listened to religious song to give a pure start to the day. When he changed the playlist to his songs that he listened while training and sweating for the event every day. He closed his eyes and remembered all his hard work, all the support of his coach and family and how he progressed from his injury. A few stations before, he saw a lady standing and headed her to sit. He got down on his stop, participated and gave his best performance. He thanked his coach and family for their support.

7. Capt. Vilevam, 25, posted in Shopian Kashmir. got an intel that a few infiltrators has been seen entering through a remote village and have weapons. It was also suspected that they were planning an attack over one unit base. He immediately prepared a patroling party of 5 of his best soldiers and lead the operation. He asked everyone to take cover and enter the village on his order. Suddenly he heard gun-shots being fired and saw with his binoculars that a civilian had been stuck in the open fire. Vilevam told his soldiers to give him cover and he ran to save the villager. He nabbed him down and kept firing from one hand. Therefore, he kept firing, entered the village and shot down all the infiltrators and assured villagers to not worry.

8. Nishu, 25, a merchant navy officer who is given on task to carry the necessary goods to a opposite location to the shore in a small boat since the waterway was very narrow and large boats could not make their way. He carried the goods, fire sticks, torch, first aid and life jacket along with him and started his journey. Halfway, it got grossly dark and a heavy wave also encountered his way. He used his fire sticks in his hand and with the help of boat sticks, he managed to balance the boat and made sure any goods are not given away. After a little struggle, he managed to get to shore and completed the task.

9. Rahul, 25, a fine art artist, was a national winner for fine arts in Delhi. He was a student of some very good and legally certified had made a 3-D model of various geography drawing different objects submerged in it. He took along his camera, a notebook and sketchbook to carefully monitor and note down the brilliance of the 3-D art. He kept on searching in the internet about the art he was making a look at it. He read all the library and about the model written on the boards in front of the model. He came back and then narrated the complete experience to his batchmates and gave them knowledge transfer and advice to use it.

10. Anil, 26, was travelling to abroad along with his wife to settle for a few years because of his business requirement and the company had projected him to complete. He while boarding towards the staircase, saw that his wife was a little sad and was missing the family and her parents. He went, picked her on the luggage and after sitting comfortably on the seats, promised her that in few years would easily pass and they would keep on visiting back to everyone. And also the video calls would also help. After a comfortable flight of nearly 5 hours, he landed in New York and settled well in a few days. Also, kept in contact with the family members and ours.

(11)

Again, 26, noting a senior official from the bank, I saw that one two of the employees got into an heated argument over some compliance issue and this was disturbing the working of other employees & environment of the office. He intervened the conversation and pacified both of them, served them water and asked them about the issue they were facing. Since they told that one of them had done an incomplete procedure of a client and the client was unhappy. He then called the client and clarified the issue, rectified the bank's mistake and corrected it. Later, he also instructed them and instructed not to make the office premises chaotic and return to work.

(12)

Date:

100VA

Ref, 23, QA Engineer was very keen to participate in the corporate cricket league that was announced by the company. He emailed the direct reports in the lower and gave notification date, time and premises of the trial. In the trial committee, he selected two good players and then booked the two arena beside the office building for the trial. After a week of full fledged trial and selecting players, they submitted the final 15 names on the league portal and kept time of practicing everyday 2 hours after the office. Since the team had both male and female employees, he made sure everyone reaches home in time. After their collective effort, the team went into the finals and won. Ref thanked the team and company.

1. Important address of the pm must be adhered.
2. No decisions are taken in a group.
3. Searching the right resources helps better.
4. Right planning helps finishing task in time.
5. Calm mind solves tricky situations.
6. Active schedule takes out laziness.
7. Thinking fast and slow is a good look.
8. Excellence comes with hard work.
9. Dear ones are loved unconditionally.
10. Car wheels require daily maintenance.
11. Leaders lead the group effectively.
12. Fighting for the rights takes out a leader.
13. No goal is far when decided.
14. Functional knowledge comes with real time work.
15. Knowledge is the paramount of success.
16. Soldiers guard the nation selflessly.
17. Proper investigation solves any matter.
18. Right diet never makes anyone sick.
19. Security measures prevent fire in forests.
20. Shooting down the enemy requires precision.

परीक्षा-II

Test II

Do not write in this column
इस कॉलम में न लिखें

21. Training in cold season makes will stronger.
22. Stealing is a sign of weak.
23. Police makes the bright plan to catch Dacoits.
24. Vigilance on the streets prevents kidnapping.
25. Unfamiliar situations make a leader.
26. Wealthy people make one improve.
27. Refutation overcomes self doubt.
28. Courage comes with self confidence.
29. Weak people act cowardly everywhere.
30. Memories never die in life.
31. Every Indian is a patriot in their own way.
32. Harder goals are served with purpose.
33. Hating others solves nothing.
34. Reversed situation gives time to resolve.
35. Drinking water daily keep body calm.
36. Proper sleep makes one think clearly.
37. Bare things are hard to achieve.
38. Notorious deeds are active participants.
39. A reader leads one society.
40. Team player keeps the team ahead.

परीक्षा-II

Test II

Do not write in this column
इस कॉलम में न लिखें

41. Personal interest come at one last in life.
42. Active participation in games keeps fit.
43. Freedom is an outcome of resilience.
44. Funny guy spreads happiness.
45. Secret of happiness is contentment.
46. Stupid mistakes give important lessons.
47. There's always a second chance to improve.
48. Secular country treats everyone equally.
49. A good speaker is slow, clear and well read.
50. Preparation helps clearing exams.
51. Lucky person keeps the morale high group.
52. Lie weakens relationships.
53. Legends are made with consistency.
54. Listening carefully makes task easier.
55. Hanging with friends keeps mind healthy.
56. Caring over hegemony is useless.
57. Long drive with family gives peace.
58. Soldiers are brave enough to save country.
59. Modern weapons makes an army strong.
60. Fortune is won by hard work.

1. helped people evacuate, assisted the railway team to get people to hospital, informed father and received him.
2. immediately pulled the rope they were tied with, and maintained balance.
3. kept his decision paramount and voted for right person.
4. successfully distracted them, and managed to run toward the nearest police station.
5. Paid fine, got down on next station and boarded next train.
6. took water, searched for an alternate route and reached to friends and gave water to friends.
7. cracked a joke and normalized conversation.
8. took immediate cooling spray, recovered in 10-15 mins, continued playing.
9. got up, walked along his cycle, reached home, gave mom medicine and later applied first aid to himself.
10. searched around, consulted with other passengers, informed the TT, lodged complaint and later found.

11.

12.

13.

14.

15.

16.

17.

18.

19. Took dinner to the hospital for curing leucis on one same hospital. when was admitting the other victim
20. substituted in player, and even one must.

21. immediately plugged it off and game went part to iron outside later got it prepared.

22. conniced his parents and pursued his chore.

23. shouldered responsibly, captained and won.

24. substituted him, delayed match and later enquired

25. fixed communication, tested it and sailed.

26. pacified the strike by talking to the leader and managed a meeting between college staff and strike.

27. rushed, evacuated one man out, didn't remove any cloth to prevent hypothermia, took to nearest base.

28. got out of water, threw a big bamboo and asked friend to hold, and rescued.

29. maintained discipline.

30.

31. pacified crowd and enjoyed match.
32. I swam to the ship and climbed back with ladder
33. sat with them, removed misunderstanding.
34. convinced them about his interest to join the armed forces, gave CDS and joined ~~army~~.
35. didn't participate and persuaded them not to participate.
36. sat with them, heard him and solved the misunderstanding.
37. lodged complaint and got him arrested.
38. took along admit card and address card, showed to police on the way, reached centre and gave exam.
39. started taking tuition to support mother, took help of seniors to get guidance and carried on his education.
40. talked to the man calmly, explained him the significance and made him off the lights.
41. He walked and reached home.
42. sorted suitably and left with friends.
43. borrowed from friends, got him treated and returned later in time.
44. walked towards less denser side, corrected themselves and moved.
45. got friend stand up, checked for injury and continued journey.

46. Left car on one spot, moved towards main road, got home and brought mechanic on one spot to fix.
47. Left peacefully after addressing the team and played.
48. Confronted them and went home.
49. Confronted them, our powered and made them arrested.
50. Apologized him, asked him to give mangoes, and enjoyed.
51. Called cousin to reach home, kept in touch, game interview and came back to farm.
52. Boarded off one cycle, walked along and reached.
53. Called company, requested for postponement, took farm to hospital and game interview later.
54. Saved him.
55. Tossing one miter got one snake under one bucket, put it for our into a fute bag and left it in nearby wild.
56. Lodged complaint to the police, took help of friends and family, found mother and arrested kidnappers.
57. Kept the plan on and enjoyed the journey with care.
58. Took names who had one book, met them and shared together.
- 59.
- 60.

SD (Self Description)

- 1) Parents Opinion
- 2) Teachers Opinion / Employers opinion
- 3) Friends Opinion
- 4) Self Opinion
- 5) What I would like to be.

In my parents opinion I am a responsible and hard working child. They involve me in every important decision of my family and shoulder responsibility on me like financially my sisters education. They find me helpful as I help my mother in daily chores and father with finances and also help my grandparents with new technology computer things. They sometimes don't like me making stand alone plans with my friends, which I understand their concern and tell them a few days prior.

My manager is of one opinion that I am a sincere and punctual employee who adheres to the deadlines of any task assigned to me and likes my enquiring nature. He finds me well get along with my fellow mates and also like me taking part in different activities and sports in the office. He suggests me to take one task at a time since that is likely to impact my productivity; and I am following his advice.

my friends thinks me as a happy go golly person who makes their mood go from upset to happy immediately. They find me comfortable in sharing any kind of problem and also considers me full of curiosity and caring for and. My sometimes get annoyed of not picking their phones at once, but they equally understand my work things and are assured that I will call back once free.

In my opinion; I am a group centric person who encourages collective goals and believes in collective victory or defeat. I like interacting with people from different domains and walks of life, be it a senior manager or one I found working in my workplace. I find myself grateful to everyone I have so far and strive continuously towards my goals. But, sometimes I am too engrossed in work that I forget that my loved ones have ~~not~~ spoken to me for sometime, so I immediately call them and take their news.

I wish to become a competent army officer, who could accomplish any task given by one superior that is in best interest of one nation. Also, I want to lead an example to my juniors and equals by being well read, and physically and mentally fit. I also wish to give a decent and lively life to my family and make everyone proud.